

Call for Papers

Dortmund International Research Conference 2014

June 27 – 28, 2014, in Dortmund, Germany

Organized by:

Dortmund University of Applied Sciences and Arts

European Master in Project Management

Invitation:

The main goal of the Dortmund International Research Conference is to provide a forum for reports, discussions and workshops on international aspects of science, research and teaching. The dominant context of the conference is related to a European view on project management. Nevertheless, the conference addresses related areas like business administration, creativity, research management and event management, too. The forum is open to contributions and sessions from different scientific domains.

Conference Streams and Topics

The scope of the conference is:

- Project Management in the European Context
- Business Administration and Economics
- Event management
- IT Projects

We would like to take the opportunity to discuss with the EuroMPM community how to participate in the upcoming 125th anniversary of Dortmund University of Applied Sciences and Arts in 2015.

You are welcome to propose additional topics and special streams. The conference language is English.

Submission

Prospective authors are invited to submit an extended abstract of 3-4 pages (in English only). A template for the abstract is available on:
